There are two types of Leaves of Absence available to Members

1. Medical Leave (ML)
2. Discretionary Leave (DL)

Medical Leave of Absence (ML)

The request must be submitted in writing, supported by a physician's letter, and presented to the General Manager or Secretary of the Board for approval. Should the ML be approved, the Member will be subject to the following terms and conditions of ML status:

Membership Status

- *Maintain their current state of membership for 60 days, including paying all dues
- *Upon the 61st day, the dues paid from approval to the 60th day will be credited to their account, and no further dues will be charged until the member returns to active status
- *Golf Members on MLOA will only have access to the Golf practice facility as a way of rehabilitation
- *While on leave, the member cannot access the course by booking a tee time or as a guest.
- *During the medical leave period, the Member will continue to have access to the dining facilities and pro-shops of the Club. All purchases are the responsibility of the Member
- *When the Member is on ML, they will not be responsible for maintaining the House Minimum obligation. The annual F&B minimum will be pro-rated from the day of the ML approval to the date of return

Discretionary Leave (DL)

The request may be granted to a Member who cannot maintain his or her full membership due to personal or business reasons, excluding medical. A request must be submitted in writing and presented to the General Manager or Secretary of the board for approval. Should the DL be approved, the Member will be subject to the following terms and condition of DL status:

- *Membership Status is Maintained, at minimum, a Social membership and pay the associated dues to such membership category & status.
- *Capital Assessment - The member will pay 100% of the capital assessment fee associated with the membership category from which they are on leave, for every year of their absence.
- *Access to Facilities. A golf member on DL will not have access to the course or practice facilities by booking a tee time or being a guest while on leave.
- *Access to Clubhouse facilities / Minimum - During the DL period, the Member will continue to have access to the Club's dining facilities and Pro-Shops, and any purchases are the responsibility of the Member.
- *During the time that the Member is on DL, they will not be responsible to maintain the House Minimum obligation. The annual F&B minimum will be pro-rated from the day of the DL approval to the date of return.

The member must continue to pay 100% of the capital assessment fees of their regular membership category.

*Please note that if your house account is not in good standing at any time, you will lose your playing privileges until it is back in good standing.
